- The above chart is a general guideline for admission. If a student does not meet one of the criteria they may still be admitted based upon a sliding scale
- SAT score is based on the test offered prior to March 2016
- We superscore for both ACT & SAT
  - Superscore = choosing the top scores from the different subtests taken on different test dates and recalculating the score

Apply

- apply.wvu.edu
- Currently accepting applications for 2016-2017 school year
- WVU now participates in the Common Application
- No official admissions deadline because we operate on Rolling Admissions--we will accept students until our freshman class is full
- A complete application must have: The application, application fee, official high school transcript, official ACT/SAT score
  - In-state and Out of State application fee: $45
  - This fee is waived if a student visits campus prior to applying
  - High school counselors can submit an application fee waiver form for students with special circumstances

Review

- Start the review process mid-September
- Typically decisions are sent within 6-8 weeks
- Student can track their status online at apply.wvu.edu
- WVU does NOT require nor do we evaluate letters of recommendation, personal statements, or resumes for admission

Branch Campuses

- If a student does not meet the minimum requirements for admission at WVU, he/she may be referred to one of our branch campuses. After accumulating 24 transferrable credits and maintaining a 2.0 GPA the students can change campuses to complete their education at WVU

Honors College

- New: A student no longer has to indicate interest in Honors to be considered for Honors College admission. If they meet the requirements they will automatically be considered for the program
- After acceptance to WVU, the Honors College will send a letter to eligible students with additional information on applying (which includes writing an essay)
- Requirements
  - 3.8 GPA and 25 ACT or 1140 SAT (M/V)
  - 3.6 GPA and 26 ACT or 1180 SAT or 27 ACT or 1220 SAT (M/V)
  - 3.5 GPA and 28 ACT or 1260 SAT (M/V)

After Accepted

- Academic Deposit ($150 in state, $250 nonresident) Fully refundable until May 1
- Housing Deposit ($225) Partially refundable until May 1
- Attend a New Student Orientation session the summer before classes start

Tuition Rates

- In-State Tuition: $6,384
- Out of State Tuition: $20,184
- Room & Board: $9,024
  - Rates are subject to change. The listed costs are based on two semesters with a minimum of twelve credits each

Housing

Required to Live on Campus

- All single, first-year students are required to live in University housing. In addition, transfer students with fewer than 29 transferable credit hours are also required to live on campus
  - Exceptions to this include:
    - Students who live at home with parents within a 50-mile radius of WVU
    - Students who are married
    - Students who have children
    - Students that are 21 years old

How to Choose a Residence Hall

- Housing is first come, first served. Meaning the earlier that students pay their housing deposit the more likely they will be able to get into the residence hall that they want
  - Housing deposits/housing application available: Mid October ($225)
  - Housing opens: February 1st
- Students can select their own roommate through the roommate matching service on the housing application
  - The housing application is often referred to as the “e-harmony” of roommate matching due to the process
- 13 residence halls on campus and 4 university owned apartments
  - Room styles: Suite, Community, and Spa
- New Fall 2015: Oakland Hall - Freshman Residence Hall
  - Double occupancy 11’ x 22’ rooms with spa style bathrooms

College Fairs

Remember to:

- Review your training materials and check the Old Gold, New Blue website for updates
- Distribute WVU materials and spread the Mountaineer spirit
- Encourage students to visit campus
- Answer general questions about WVU to the best of your ability
- Refer students to admissions if you do not know the answer to a question
- If an emergency prevents you from attending, please notify the Office of Admissions at 304-293-2121 and the college fair directly

Tips

- Place the tablecloth with WVU logomark facing away from the table
- Place any pop-up signs on the top of the table
- Place the following handouts around the table for easy reference as students visit:
  - Roadpiece: contains all general WVU information
  - TUMAY card: also known as inquiry cards, which students complete to be added to our database
  - If you have a scanner be sure that it is charged and ready to go prior to arriving at the fair

Do...

- Introduce yourself and speak clearly
- Be positive, professional, and enthusiastic
- Stand behind your table at all times!
- Stand up at all times, if possible
- Set up the table by the time the fair begins
- Smile!
- Share how WVU shaped the successful professional you are today
- Have fun!!

Don’t...

- Put other schools down or be negative
- Pass out promotional items (pens, stickers, candy, personal business cards, etc.)
- Promise admission or financial aid to students or families
- Guess about the facts. It is okay to say “I don’t know”
- Leave until the fair concludes
- Stand in front of your table to illicit interactions
- Meet students outside of sanctioned WVU events
